A1: The light eater of love and mercy – Ms. Mori

The life of not eating is also interesting.

As a young girl, Ms. Mori (a licensed acupuncturist), was diagnosed with Spinocerebellar Degeneration (SCD). She was able to overcome this intractable disease by using the raw vegetable diet of the “Koda Method”. Each day she eats only one cup of 80 calorie green juice, plus a small amount of supplements for health maintenance. Not only has she had no further health problems for 15 years, but this lifestyle has allowed her soul to shine brighter and brighter. Now her words and actions are attracting the attention of others who are suffering from difficult diseases as well as the interest of a spiritual leader and a medical scholar. Ms. Mori says, “It is love and mercy to perform Eating Light. We would like to show the world the way of life which produces harmony. It is a new perspective which counters the current attitude of gluttony in the United States and Japan.” At this Friday seminar, the recently produced film “The Era of Eating Light” will be presented, as well as discussions with Ms. Mori. At the weekend super sessions, she will share a detailed explanation of the raw vegetable diet which is also a spiritual way of living .

A2: Spiritual Kiko which brings a fortune – Mr. Sato

The KIKO method, created by Mr. Tadashi Sato, is a very simple and unique form of energy work which can be used anywhere, anytime, and by anyone. This method (1) makes it possible to not only receive external KI (energy) from the universe, but to also generate internal KI (energy). (2) harmonizes the mind, body, and universe through a lower center of gravity. (3) and changes the balance of “contraction KI” and “expansion KI” in order to focus concentration, deep sleep, and meditation. This easy, daily self-training strengthens mind and body in addition to increasing your sense of life purpose. Sato style KIKO guides you to an existence filled with the energy to make yourself happy along with the people around you. Other benefits that have been reported are increased immunity, out-of-body experiences, and a feeling of connection with the essence of the great universe.
